Heart of the Hustle 2020-03-31 the world is noisy everywhere we turn we see what is expected of us including in business messages about

powerful women entrepreneurs bombard us boss babe supermom mom boss we are taught to envision a life of prosperity push ourselves to succeed do whatever it takes and strive for recognition those channels promise success and prosperity yet what happens when the promise is unfulfilled not because we didn't succeed but in the midst of our success when i found myself hitting this successful yet something was missing well i was left feeling like there must be something wrong with me was i not focused enough did i not want it badly enough was i not willing to work hard enough was i not cut out to be an entrepreneur these lies are just what the enemy wants us to believe as he seeks to distract us from god's purpose by planting seeds of discouragement doubt and discontent in our minds when some major setbacks led me to seek answers i encountered jesus and that changed everything i knew about business this book is for you if any of these resonate with you you are a successful entrepreneur even if you believe you were but aren't now who feels she's lost her joy for the business you feel like you're chasing the money but losing fulfillment and you wonder what to do next you're formerly of the corporate world now translating all that drive discipline competitive edge and resilience into your own business in search of hope and freedom you seek to keep your relationship with christ in the forefront as you build a business in the midst of drivers and strivers all around you i wrote this book to bring hope to women like you and me who desire to make an impact for god's glory but aren't sure if it's possible or even appropriate to bridge faith and business god gave us businesses to steward wisely the only way to do this is with him at the center and that's how we hustle with heart

Hustle & Heart 2019-07-11 do you consider where you've been and where you want to go, and who do you call on for guidance after learning he was adopted out of the blue? Mike Thorne struggled to find his place in the world, plagued by perfectionism and fears of abandonment that followed him into adulthood. But he identified a path for himself through sports, along with two key concepts that helped him transform a better way forward: that we need to build, belong, and believe to make progress effectively, and that we must have others on our journey, people we can rely on to hold us accountable and for support. A personal trust community with his story, Mike teaches readers of all ages how to learn from his experiences and reach their north star by employing the tools he built along the way. He's proof that by hustling with heart on the field and beyond, we can transform and thrive at home and work. Mike Thorne is a transformer and personal growth mentor using his personal trust community model. Mike helps leaders find belonging, build toward their greatest dreams, and believe in themselves, their work, and others. He has held numerous executive leadership positions, including president of team sports at Russell Athletic and president of the wholesale division at Yankee Candle. In 2020, he decided to step away from the C-suite to further his mission of spreading the value of trust and vulnerability in relationships. He leads group workshops and one-on-one sessions that help transform human beings toward greater performance and fulfillment in their personal and professional lives. This is his first book. You can learn more about Mike and his work at mikethorne.co.
