It includes details on authors' names, pseudonyms, addresses, citizenship, birth date, specialization, career information, and a bibliography. The dictionary is a valuable resource for researchers and librarians.

The parish of Bamburgh

The parish of Bamburgh is a reference guide to the major sources for the study of recreational vehicles, boats, and aircraft in the context of American history and popular culture. It provides brief histories of the various types of vehicles and bibliographic essays on published and unpublished sources for further study. Reference works, histories, fiction, and specialized journals relating to the topic of recreational travel are described and analyzed. Appendixes list numerous museums, trade associations, and specialized organizations concerned with leisure travel, as well as films and video tapes.
