position on scripture in particular st john's gospel where he showed christ meant eating and drinking his body and blood to be understood as receiving by faith the benefits of his death for sins to think of eating and drinking christ's actual body and blood with the mouth is he argued a gross misunderstanding the purpose of the sacrament is to satisfy spiritual hunger the roman doctrine he maintained was also contrary to the true catholic teaching of the two natures of christ his humanity and his divinity in the creeds we confess that christ has ascended bodily into heaven not to return to earth in that manner until the last day the true catholic faith therefore requires us to believe that he is not present with us in the nature of his humanity but that he is present in the nature of his deity to teach as the church of rome does that he is present bodily in the sacrament is to deny this teaching of the creeds to assert a heretical doctrine of the one nature of christ and to deny his real humanity for this reason cranmer called his book a defence of the true and catholic doctrine of the sacrament the errors of rome also extended to the notion that the sacrament was a sacrifice offered by the priest to take away sins cranmer refuted this from the scriptures and the ancient fathers

Love, Sexuality, and the Sacrament of Marriage 1996 the central theme of the study is christ as the sacrament of reconciliation of the human being with god in light of this premise the study is divided into two main parts the first part concentrates on the human response to grace thus personal justification in this section different but related topics are studied the human act and its limitations the nature of sin in antithesis to the virtue of justice implanted in the human heart the second part of the study takes care of the sacrament of reconciliation as understood in catholic dogma an historical survey of the sacrament brings into focus the teaching of the fathers of the church which was implemented by ecumenical and particular councils and codifications the same historical survey prepares the reader for a better understanding of the canons on penance the canons of the latin and of the eastern rite codes are presented with an explanation when necessary through the study of these canons it becomes clear that concern of the church is to protect the sacredness and the dignity of the sacrament as well as the dignity of the penitent

Spirit and Sacrament 2019-01-08 the sacrament of penance and religious life in golden age spain explores the practice of sacramental confession in spain between roughly 1500 and 1700 one of the most significant points of contact between the laity and ecclesiastical hierarchy confession lay at the heart of attempts to bring religious reformation to bear upon the lives of early modern spaniards rigid episcopal legislation royal decrees and a barrage of prescriptive literature lead many scholars to construct the sacrament fundamentally as an instrument of social control foisted upon powerless laypeople drawing upon a wide range of early printed and archival materials this book considers confession as both a top down and a bottom up phenomenon rather than relying solely upon prescriptive and didactic literature it considers evidence that describes how the people of early modern spain experienced confession offering a rich portrayal of a critical and remarkably popular component of early modern religiosity

From Sinners to Saints 2014 what are we doing when we confirm teenagers why is the religious education of teenagers so perplexing why is confirmation often a moment of graduation out of parish life confirmation how a sacrament of god's grace became all about us tells the story of how confirmation more than any other sacrament has interacted with secular culture to give rise to these kinds of pastoral challenges at the same time confirmation has over the course of the twentieth century become a sacramental stamp of approval for various catholic renewal movements the cultural shifts of the last century have led to various theological themes for confirmation creating a crisis of meaning today is confirmation a personal choice for faith or is it the deepening of an ongoing relationship with the divine timothy gabrielli gives us a fresh approach for addressing these pressing questions

Calvin's Doctrine of the Word and Sacrament 1997-09-30 endorsements robert stamps offers us a compelling case for the significance of the theology of thomas torrance to current discussions about trinitarian doctrine and worship he shows that torrance's christology and eucharistic thought validates the reformed confession of a profound real spiritual presence in the eucharist this book serves as a helpful introduction to torrance especially his framing of revelation moreover it invigorates our understanding of the theological meaning of sacramental devotion its readers will be stimulated provoked and dare i say inspired by its insights into and critiques of one of the most important and recent reformed thinkers in sum this is a timely and exciting book it will well serve pastors theologians and thoughtful christians of many theological perspectives mark valerie t thompson professor of church history union theological seminary virginia one of the values of this work is that it has deliberately sought not so much to discuss a particular problem or a collection of issues as to identify torrance as an example of an archetypal reformed theology of the eucharist to say that dr stamps has been industrious is patently an understatement the truth is that he has been indefatigable in his search for the least morsel that torrance offers yet it is not so much as a study of torrance that this book is to be commended its great value is that it offers a contextualization of torrance's thinking on the eucharist in ecclesiology the more general dimension of an incarnational theology as well as his understanding of cosmology and epistemology i hope that dr stamps book will not only find grateful readers but will be repaid by profound reflection on this symbol of the heart of faith john heywood thomas emeritus professor of theology university of nottingham
