The land now called St. Joseph County was familiar ground to Native Americans long before recorded history many Indians including the local Potawatomi and Miami trod the well worn path that offered a two mile portage between the St. Joseph River and Lake Michigan to the Kankakee River and eventually the Mississippi River Pierre F. Navarre built a log cabin beside the St. Joseph River in 1820 and began a settlement that would eventually become South Bend and Mishawaka in St. Joseph County the over 200 vintage images in this book drawn from St. Joseph County and Mishawaka as well as South Bend look back at the commerce industry and businesses like Studebaker Ball Band Singer and Bendix which grew on the rich resources of the area education was a high priority for early settlers and they established one room schoolhouses and Notre Dame University the photographs show public places buildings and servants some long gone others that are still with us today and of course there are pictures of the people the homes they built and the activities they enjoyed in their northern Indiana home

Nonbinary gender identities are those that fall outside the traditional binary of man and woman these include genderfluid androgynous genderqueer and a multitude of other identity terms some of which overlap although there have always been people who identify outside the gender binary only recently have they gained popular media attention despite some visibility

however nonbinary gender identities are poorly understood by the general public it is critically important for gender minorities to find themselves in the media that they consume just as important is the need for those outside the minority community to understand and appreciate them nonbinary gender identities are represented in books and other media but these resources prove difficult to locate as classification vocabulary doesn't evolve as quickly as community language reference sources identified include archives and special collections theses and dissertations key journals and related organizations and associations this timely resource the first reference on nonbinary gender identities offers an accessible entry into researching this topic written by a nonbinary scholar and librarian this guide includes valuable appendixes that will aid every researcher and writer a glossary of the rich vocabulary emerging from nonbinary communities a guide to pronoun usage a primer on sex sexuality and gender and library of congress classification information with antecedents dating back to the middle ages the community garden is more popular than ever as a means of procuring the freshest food possible and instilling community cohesion but as micheline nilsen shows the small garden movement which gained impetus in the nineteenth century as rural workers crowded into industrial cities was for a long time primarily a repository of ideas concerning social reform hygienic improvement and class mobility complementing efforts by worker cooperatives unions and social legislation the provision of small garden plots offered some relief from bleak urban living conditions urban planners often thought of such gardens as a way to insert lungs into a city standing at the intersection of a number of disciplines including landscape studies horticulture and urban history the working man's green space focuses on the development of allotment gardens in european countries in the nearly half century between the franco prussian war and world war i when the french third republic the german empire and the late victorian era in england saw the development of unprecedented measures to improve the lot of the laboring classes nilsen shows how community gardening is inscribed within a social contract that differs from country to country but how there is also an underlying aesthetic and social significance to these gardens that transcends national borders
