major literary movements of european literature in general with unique features of hispanic culture that are a consequence of the special circumstances of its geography especially the ways in which it historically served as a conduit to europe of arabic and jewish cultures figures of international acclaim like federico garc a lorca miguel de unamuno and jose ortega y gasset nobel prizewinners like vicente aleixandre and camilo jose cela the universality of miguel de cervantes without whom the modern novel would not have been possible the uniqueness of the hispanic ballad tradition mystic poets like san juan de la cruz and santa teresa jesus and the picaresque tradition are some of the major reference points for the singularity of spanish literary culture all of this literary activity has inspired innumerable dissertations theses and books published by academic and trade presses as well as articles in journals traditionally devoted to literary history and philosophy along with new specialized journals and the organization of national and international congresses on national and cultural issues writers and schools of writing these three volumesseselect the most seminal works on
