The Sale of a Country

2011-11

the sale of a country is a riveting account of what took place behind the scenes at the canadian free trade negotiations office shrouded in a veil of secrecy clandestine meetings midnight shredding of briefing books and key working papers there was still time for the creation of a sex pit the man who was parachuted in by former prime minister brian mulroney to do the deed was a sexual predator his need for sex led to carelessness and bad judgment that almost destroyed the prime minister's plan to leave a legacy that he was the one who had achieved a free trade agreement with one of the world's most powerful countries the united states of america where everyone else had failed

Diary of a Country Clergyman 1848-1851

2000-04-06

a crusty yet diffident scot james reid began his career as a sectarian evangelical missionary the diary finds him thirty years later as a moderate if conservative anglican clergyman through this remarkable document village routines and intrigues as well as reid s circle of friends and his clerical colleagues come vividly to life his private reflections on the tensions and growing pains experienced by the colonial church at a formative stage in its evolution and his reaction to events on the wider political scene give us valuable insights into his life and the times reid was a man of considerable complexity and his foibles and vanities are apparent in his narrative the glimpses of his home life shed much light on gender relations and the history of the family the diary has been edited and annotated by m e reisner who provides the background to reid s narrative her informative biographical sketches collected in an appendix shed further light on representative local figures and the community dynamics of his town the diary of a country clergyman will be of interest to the general reader and social historian alike

Political History of the Madura Country

the first canadian diplomat to be posted to war torn sudan nicholas coghlan was a natural choice to lead canada s representation in the new republic of south sudan soon after the country was founded in 2011 in late 2013 coghlan and his wife jenny were in the capital juba when it erupted in gunfire and civil war pitted one half of the army against the other vice president machar against president kiir and the nuer tribe against the dinka this action focused narrative grounded by accounts of meetings with key leaders and travels throughout the dangerous impoverished hinterland of south sudan explains what happened in december 2013 and why in harrowing terms collapse of a country describes the ebb and flow of the war and the humanitarian tragedy that followed the coghlan's scramble to evacuate south sudanese canadians from juba and the well meant but often ill conceived attempts of the international community to mitigate the misery and bring peace back to a land that has rarely known it coghlan's stark narrative serves as a lesson to politicians diplomats aid workers and practitioners on the breakdown of governance and relationships between ethnic groups and the often decisive role of international development representatives fast paced and poignant collapse of a country gives an insider's glimpse into the chaos violence and ethnic conflicts that emerged out of a civil war that has been largely ignored by the west
