world as a whole research on world literature commonly focuses on the dynamics of a western center and a southern periphery ignoring the fact that numerous literary relationships exist beyond these established constellations of thinking and reading within the global south re mapping world literature suggests a different approach that aims to investigate new navigational tools that extend beyond the known poles and meridians of current literary maps using the example of latin american literatures this study provides innovative insights into the literary modeling of shared historical experiences epistemological crosscurrents and book market processes within the global south which thus far have received scant attention the contributions to this volume from renowned scholars in the fields of world and latin american literatures assess travelling aesthetics conceptual and artistic practice with visual representations of space and with destinations of real and fictive travel maps were often taken as straightforward objective configurations however they expose deeply subjective frameworks with social political and economic significance travel narratives whether illustrated or not can address similar frameworks whereas travelled space is often adventurous and speaking of hardship strange encounters and danger city portraits tell a tale of civilized life and civic pride the book seeks to address the multiple ways in which maps and travel literature conceive of the world communicate a weltbild depict space and or define knowledge the volume challenges academic boundaries in the study of cartography by exploring the links between mapmaking and artistic practices the contributions discuss individual mapmakers authors of travelogues mapmaking as an artistic practice the relationship between travel literature and mapmaking illustration in travel focused on the recently hotly debated topic at the crossroads of various its designers traumatic experience as induced by the disconcerting the instances dispossessed by injury that search for the ways of healing it
