this book represents a selection of papers presented by academics and researchers at the 12th conference on british and american studies they are grouped in two main theme clusters corresponding to the two chapters of the book languages in contact and languages in use and multidisciplinarity and multiculturalism in literary studies in the first section language is described in turn as subject to influence by other language systems as an object of learning and acquisition and as an instrument enabling users to bridge between cultures disciplinary domains and people the second part of the volume is mainly concerned with such notions as hybridity tolerance identity subversion and deconstruction as reflected in classical and contemporary anglo american literary texts
