insightful commentary helps that message come alive while providing pertinent suggestions about how preachers can proclaim this message to today's churchgoers existential psychology east west is a collection of chapters exploring existential psychology in a cross-cultural context. The original version was published in preparation for the first international conference on existential psychology held in Nanjing, China, in 2010. This revised and expanded edition includes several updated chapters as well as four new chapters. The book consists of three sections: the first section provides an introduction to existential humanistic psychotherapy along with a case illustration; section two contains 13 chapters from eastern and western scholars exploring the theory of existential psychology; the third section contains 10 chapters building from Rollo May's work on myth. Each chapter explores the existential themes of a myth embedded within a particular cultural context. The book concludes with an annotated bibliography of important works in existential psychology.

existential psychology east west is an important contribution to the field with many influential eastern and western scholars including Kirk Schneider, Xuefu Wang, Ilene Serlin, Mark Yang, Ed Mendelowitz, Heyong Shen, Erik Craig Myrtle Heery, Alan G. Vaughan, Louis Hoffman, and Nathaniel Granger Jr.

The NIV Application Commentary helps you communicate and apply biblical text effectively in today's context to bring the ancient messages of the Bible into today's world. Each passage is treated in three sections: original meaning, concise exegesis to help readers understand the original meaning of the biblical text in its historical, literary, and cultural context, bridging contexts: a bridge between the world of the Bible and the world of today, built by discerning what is timeless in the timely pages of the Bible, contemporary significance. This section identifies comparable situations to those faced in the Bible and explores relevant application of the biblical messages. The author alerts the readers of problems they may encounter when seeking to apply the passage and helps them think through the issues involved. This unique award winning commentary is the ideal resource for today s preachers teachers and serious students of the bible giving them the tools ideas and insights they need to communicate god s word with the same powerful impact it had when it was first written drawing on many years of marcan studies world class scholar r t france has produced an exegetical commentary on the greek text of mark that does what the best of recent greek commentaries have done but in france s own inimitable reader friendly way this work is a commentary on mark itself not a commentary on commentaries of mark it deals immediately and directly with matters that france himself regards as important working from his own translation of the greek text and culling from helpful research into the world of first century palestine france provides an extensive introduction to mark s gospel followed by insightful section and verse commentary france sees the structure of mark s gospel as an effective drama in three acts act 1 takes up jesus public ministry in galilee act 2 covers jesus journey to jerusalem with his disciples act 3 focuses on jesus public ministry in jerusalem including his confrontation with the jewish leaders his explanatory discourse on the future and his passion death and resurrection france carefully unpacks for modern readers the two central themes of this powerful narrative of jesus life the nature of christ and the role of discipleship supported by careful argumentation and impressive in its sensitivity to mark s structure context and use of the old testament france s study of the second gospel is without peer newly issued in a series of part volumes the obc is now available in an affordable and portable format for the four canonical gospels matthew mark luke and john includes a general introduction to using the commentary in addition to an introduction to study of the new testament and a detailed comparison of the four gospels in synopsis it s no secret that the evangelism methods of yesterday are not yielding the kinds of results they did in the 1970s and 1980s so how are new christians hearing the gospel today how are they finding churches and what makes them stay at a church the answers to these questions have the power to dramatically alter the way we do outreach and dr mcintosh has them based on ten years of scientific research growing god s church shows pastors and church leaders how people are actually coming to faith in the 21st century it covers factors such as our motive for ministry the priorities churches set for themselves the reality of churchless christians generational and gender based differences in evangelism effectiveness the name of your church the influence of pastors and much more the appendix includes a copy of the survey that provides the basis for mcintosh s arguments and an overview of the study is provided in the first chapter these meditations on the gospel of mark with the exception of the second part on the passion were given by adrienne von speyr between 1945 and 1958 to members of the community of st john which she founded with the renowned theologian fr hans urs von balthasar adrienne is speaking to young adults who have decided to live the state of the evangelical counsels in a secular profession as part of a recently established secular institute nevertheless this contemplative commentary can be very useful for all who seek to meditate on holy scripture as always adrienne here draws from the abundance of her own contemplation which keeps continually in view the harmonious unity of christian dogmatic truth she gives to others what has been offered to her in contemplation without exegetical notes or any attempt at scholarship since she is speaking to novices the train of thought is simple and practical yet rich in depth the points for meditation are not primarily for spiritual reading but an introduction to personal prayer they are meant only to point out a path because it is the holy spirit who directs contemplative prayer in all liberty as one reads through this book he will find in it a kind of synthesis of adrienne von speyr s spirituality this work will also be very useful to preachers catechists pastors communities and institutes who have understood with pope benedict xvi that it is time to reaffirm the importance of prayer in the face of the activism and the interpretation a bible commentary for teaching and preaching is a distinctive resource for those who interpret the bible in the church planned and written specifically for teaching and preaching needs this critically acclaimed biblical commentary is a major contribution to scholarship and ministry if journalism is the first draft of history it s equally important to see how the work stands the test of time if the writing isn t prescient and perspicacious it doesn t meet that test this collection of columns and articles by I Ian macdonald a sequel to politics people potpourri meets that test much has happened in the politics of canada and quebec as well as to the leaders who have defined and shaped the first two decades of the twenty first century since the first collection was published in 2009 the successful election campaigns of harper and trudeau form the political bookends of the present decade in canada and the opening chapters of the book between these governments there are the events personalities and issues that have shaped the political narrative and policy debate from fiscal frameworks to clean energy and pipelines from the senate expense scandal and democratic reform to national security at home and the mission against isis abroad in his columns and longer pieces from policy options and policy magazines macdonald provides clear minded commentary on political issues salient to all canadians including the election of donald trump in the united states he also profiles a diverse group of political figures and writes moving tributes to departed nationally respected figures such as jean béliveau jim flaherty jack layton and tom van dusen this intelligent and entertaining collection presents macdonald at his best and offers a captivating view of canadian politics and life the short story that we now know as the gospel according to mark was written in greek twenty centuries ago in the context of an agrarian society that had been developing its own characteristics in the circum mediterranean region mark s account presupposes the values institutions and relationships of the culture in which jesus and his first followers lived modern readers of the gospels however especially those born and raised in the north atlantic postindustrial societies have other values and institutions and relate to each other according to other cultural codes this temporal and cultural distance between the ancient texts and their present day readers makes necessary an exegetical effort whose purpose is to recover as far as possible the reading scenarios presupposed by these texts in order to reconstruct these scenarios exegesis has turned in recent years to the social sciences whose models permit us to imagine and describe the situations presupposed by these ancient texts this book aims to show how the use of these scenarios elaborated with the help of the social sciences can contribute to a more considered and respectful reading of mark s story the essays in this volume develop the highly suggestive insights and theory of james c scott especially those related to patterns of domination and subordination the role of religion in supporting or opposing the powerful and the arts of resistance by the subordinated to tackle key issues in the interpretation of jesus and paul all the contributors implicitly or explicitly assume a stance sympathetic with subordinatd peoples of the past and present while all pursue primarily critical literary historical and social analysis on new testament texts in historical contexts some also examine historical or contemporary comparative materials in addition some even find scott useful in critical self examination of our own scholarly motives stances and approaches in relation to texts and their uses from publisher s description as a response to the unique challenges facing the twenty first century american church church planting has become a popular topic but at a time when churches that spread the seed of the word through preaching the sacraments and prayer are greatly needed much of the focus has been on planting churches that adapt pop culture to meet consumer demand in planting watering growing the authors of this collection of essays weave together theological wisdom personal experiences and practical suggestions guiding readers through the foundations and methods of planting confessional churches that uphold the word of god asia is by far the largest continent in the world the global expansion of the church which emanated from the middle east as explored in the first book in the series moved along various routes to take root in asia proper christianity in asia is extraordinarily diverse with very ancient forms of the faith dating to the time of the apostles the western church will be enlightened by the dynamic multi pronged asian story of christianity asian christianity is also distinct due to the numerous non traditional house or cell movements found throughout the region the diversity of christianity in asia makes christians in this region critical for the future of global christianity the life and ministry of the apostle paul was a sprawling adventure covering thousands of miles on roman roads and treacherous seas as he boldly proclaimed the gospel of jesus to anyone who would listen be they commoners or kings his impact on the church and indeed on western civilization is immeasurable from his birth in tarsus to his rabbinic training in jerusalem to his final imprisonment in rome an illustrated guide to the apostle paul brings his remarkable story to life drawing from the book of acts paul s many letters and historical and archaeological sources this fully illustrated resource explores the social cultural political and religious background of the first century roman world in which paul lived and ministered it sheds light on the places he visited and the people he met along the way most importantly it helps us understand how and why paul was used by god in such extraordinary ways pastors students and anyone engaged in bible study will find this an indispensable and inspiring resource the niv application commentary helps you communicate and apply biblical text effectively in today context to bring the ancient messages of the bible into today s world each passage is treated in three sections original meaning concise exegesis to help readers understand the original meaning of the biblical text in its historical literary and cultural context bridging contexts a bridge between the world of the bible and the world of today built by discerning
