Love At First Sight 2013-11

after the death of her husband rebecca turned to god for everything she was alone and needed god more than ever this personal relationship with god became so intense that she experienced him in ways she never dreamed were possible rebecca s journey began when she became convinced god used a man she named adam to awaken her passion to be a married lady again when rebecca shared every little detail of her life with god she felt certain god orchestrated the funniest situations to give her confidence as she traveled into unknown territory she insisted god was being playful with her and wanted her to relax and trust that he was the one that was in control those times rebecca experienced doubt god did some remarkable things to prove he was with her as a result she developed a boldness to do what she believed god was asking of her god always confirmed the decisions she made were the stepping stones leading to her destiny she learned god was pleased by her faith that she entrusted to him alone god demonstrated two way communication with him was not only possible but was necessary in order to turn her dreams into reality this two way conversation brought her relationship with god to a deeper level she knew he had prepared the way that would lead her to her future husband rebecca claims god is still in the match making business and is the best dating coach any person could ask for because father knows best all proceeds from the sale of this book will go to a mobile ministry that gives women who are facing unplanned pregnancies image clear ultrasounds free of charge when women are in crisis due to an unwanted pregnancy they need to know that god loved them at first sight hopefully with knowledge of this truth these women will now be willing to step out on a maybe and trust god to work out a solution that begins with them choosing life for the child within

from cultural studies sociology media studies gender studies and elsewhere there have been a spate of books recently which have attempted to characterize the state of modernity many of these have also argued that what is required is an ethnographic work to determine how far these supposed trends actually apply to a given population this book explicitly accepts this challenge and in so doing demonstrates the potential of modern anthropology studies it starts by summarizing some debates on modernity and then argues that the caribbean island of trinidad is particularly apt for such a study given the origins of its population in slavery and indentured labour both forms of extreme social rupture the particular focus of this book is on mass consumption and the way goods and imported images such as soap opera have been used to express and develop a number of key contradictions of modernity it will be of interest to anthropologists looking for a new potential for the discipline as well as students in other fields who will be interested in the new contribution of anthropology to their debates now in paperback the hugely acclaimed authorised biography of britain s most popular playwright alan ayckbourn is britain s most popular playwright and its most private he has won numerous awards for his plays and has worked with some of theatre s most celebrated names yet he spends most of his time away from the limelight in a yorkshire seaside town not writing at all but running a small repertory theatre this is a portrait of a man who from relatively speaking in 1965 to his double play house and garden at the national theatre in 2000 has chronicled human behaviour our aspirations and insecurities while shaping the theatrical experience of millions mr allen s book makes me want to start reading the entire ayckbourn canon over again splendid stuff hugh leonard sunday independent paul allen has come up with a wise well informed book that not only persuades us of ayckbourn s genius but also helps to explain this complex driven man michael billington country life lucid meticulously researched this impressively detailed account benefits from paul allen s rich inside knowledge of theatre terry eagleton times literary supplement thorough and enjoyable christopher hirst independent

at christmas time is a masterful short story written late in chekhov s career that is divided into two parts the first half follows an illiterate peasant family hiring an ex soldier to write a letter to their estranged daughter as they ponder the mystery of her life chekhov s wit is on full display here as the former soldier writes about the army instead of informing the daughter about her parents and hometown the second part is more sombre as the letter is delivered to the daughter by her abusive husband and we learn what has transpired in her life chekhov s fiery social critique is present in this short as he contrasts the warmth and love of hard village life with the coldness of upper class luxury at christmas time displays chekhov s ability to combine irony and melancholy into an incredible work of art that distils a family saga across time and place into a few pages this short story is chekhov at his best and should be read by fans of russian literature and beyond a prolific writer of seven plays a novel and hundreds of short stories anton chekhov 1860 1904 is considered one of the best practitioners of the short story genre in literature true to life and painfully morbid with his miserable and realistic depictions of russian everyday life chekhov s characters drift between humour melancholy artistic ambition and death some of his best known works include the plays uncle vanya the seagull and the cherry orchard where chekhov dramatizes and portrays social and existential problems his short stories unearth the mysterious beneath the ordinary situations the failure and horror present in everyday life we rarely speak or even write in the complete sentences that are often held to be the ideal form of linguistic communication language is in fact full of gaps because speakers and writers operate in contexts which allow bits of language to be understood rather than expressed this book systematically analyses this inherent gappiness of language known as ellipsis and provides an account of the different contexts both linguistic and situational which affect its use peter wilson draws on a wide variety of examples of spoken and written english and both literary and non literary to present a comprehensive classification of elliptical language that ranges from the conversational fragment and the advertisement to the dialogue of shakespeare and imagist poetry mind the gap shows how ellipsis is a feature of major structural and stylistic importance to our understanding of spoken and written language and will be of interest to undergraduate students of linguistics literature communication and the interrelations between them in this deeply thoughtful innovative work longtime college and high school teacher draws on his many years experience in leading prayer to fashion a different kind of prayer took for it he has selected various scriptural passages and applied them to the four seasons of the calendar year based loosely on an ignatian model of meditation he provides the reader with a brief introduction before presenting a passage from scripture and a reflection to follow the introduction guides us into the world of scripture and the reflection helps us to ponder the relevance of the passage in our own lives the author embraces a current practical view of spirituality that is meant to be evocative of spiritual issues he will make you think as he helps you pray

a nazareth manifesto is an eloquent and impassioned ecumenical proposal for re envisioning christianity s approach to social engagement away from working for the people to being with them questions the effectiveness of the current trend of intervention as a means of fixing the problems of people in distressed and disadvantaged circumstances argues that jesus spent 90 of his life simply being among the people of nazareth sharing their hopes and struggles therefore christians should place a similar emphasis on being alongside people in need rather than hastening to impose solutions written by a respected priest and broadcaster and renowned christian ethicist and preacher supported by historical contemporary exegetical and anecdotal illustrations
