can the religious instinct be satisfied by reality or must we who yearn for greater meaning forever make believe this is the story of eight messages composed on scraps of office trash by a quirky character named g why are you here g asks his chosen victim is an unsuspecting young engineer on his first day at work why am i here not to find a spiritual guru that s for sure but despite his reservations the young man finds himself drawn to the hyperactive guru g whose every thought revolves around just two words religion over a summer of lunchtime conversations they become good friends musing over what it means when those two words run together you may see them symbolically entwined on the cover a questioning disciple and his guru g peering at the same thing from different angles each message delves deeper into the relationship of information concepts language genetics entropy evolution and religious concepts soul ethics death and beyond no space is wasted on pseudoscientific bs futile proofs or disproofs of god and sales pitches designed to create followers for the guru this book is about challenging the foundations of our belief not to become an unbeliever in the unknowable but to become a better believer in the knowable and then rather than wishing life were otherwise to make the most of our best guess at the possible
