they ensured that teachers had the necessary materials for teaching and organized in service training for teachers to promote effective teaching in their respective schools it was found that supervisory practices adopted by headmasters and external supervisors depended on performance of students in their terminal and external final exams the study also discovered that supervisory practices opted for by headmasters in particular and external supervisors improved teaching and learning process students performance in internal terminal and external final exams it was also revealed that there were inherent challenges posed by teachers students and government that confront supervision which needs to be urgently addressed through collaborative effort of all stakeholders for the achievement of quality education the study has recommended that contemporary supervisory models emphasising motivation and autonomy of teachers should be embraced for optimum teacher output to optimize students achievement winner of the 2021 excellence in research and scholarly activity award from the university of wisconsin milwaukee finalist for the 2021 american book fest best book awards aging is one of the most compelling issues today with record numbers of seniors over sixty five worldwide gray matters finding meaning in the stories of later life examines a diverse array of cultural works including films literature and even art that represent this time of life often made by people who are seniors themselves these works focusing on important topics such as housing memory loss and intimacy are analyzed in dialogue with recent research to explore how stories illuminate the dynamics of growing old by blending fact with imagination gray matters also incorporates the life experiences of seniors gathered from over two hundred in depth surveys with a range of questions on growing old not often included in other age studies works combining cultural texts gerontology research and observations from older adults will give all readers a fuller picture of the struggles and pleasures of aging and avoids over simplified representations of the process as all negative or positive in breathing aesthetics jean thomas tremblay argues that difficult breathing indexes the uneven distribution of risk in a contemporary era marked by the increasing contamination weaponization and monetization of air tremblay shows how biopolitical and necropolitical forces tied to the continuation of extractive capitalism imperialism and structural racism are embodied and experienced through respiration they identify responses to the crisis in breathing in aesthetic practices ranging from the film work of cuban american artist ana mendieta to the disability diaries of bob flanagan to the black queer speculative fiction of renee gladman in readings of these and other minoritarian works of experimental film endurance performance eco-poetics and cinema vérité tremblay contends that articulations of survival now depend on the management and dispersal of respiratory hazards in so doing they reveal how an aesthetic attention to breathing generates historically culturally and environmentally situated tactics and strategies for living under precarity this volume provides a framework for evaluating geospatial software for participatory mapping the evaluation is based on ten key indicators ethics cost technical level inclusiveness data accuracy data privacy analytical capacity visualization capacity openness and accessibility i e mobile friendly or offline capabilities each application is evaluated by a user and cross analyzed with specific case studies of the software s real world application this framework does not discriminate against assessing volunteered geographic information vgi applications as a form of participatory mapping in circumstances that its application is spearheaded by underrepresented groups with the intent to empower and spark political or behavioral change within formal and informal institutions each chapter follows a strict template to ensure that the information within the volume can be updated periodically to match the ever changing technological environment the book covers ten different mapping applications with the goal of creating a comparative evaluation framework that can be easily interpreted by convening institutions and novice users this will also help identify gaps in software for participatory mapping which will help to inform application development in the future and updates to current geospatial

software this book enters into a detailed discussion with many theorists of totalitarianism and demands a re evaluation of approaches that speak of mass manipulation of people and ideological control mechanisms Žarko paić shows that totalitarianism cannot be only a political ideological problem but rather a problem of the relationship between the technosphere political power and the narcissistic culture of the spectacle which offers postmodern revisionism and forgetfulness of history as opposed to brave civic participation in the public sphere of acting together he investigates the transformations the political and cultural processes linked to the notion of totalitarianism undergo in the contemporary world and the transformations and differences that this notion expresses today in comparison to what was realized by fascism nazism and stalinism in the 20th century the present state of research in precarity demands meta questions and hence we need to probe both philosophy and practice in light of precarity s different manifestations the plural perspectives by which this phenomenon can be addressed also suggest potential for further theorization alongside that of butler and her critics by inviting scholars and experts from different fields and disciplines and by applying multiple frameworks methodological approaches and critical lenses this volume seeks to explore the different facets of our precarious world while providing insights into the challenges of our possible futures a fully revised and updated edition of the groundbreaking book on tackling the root causes of children s attention and behavior problems rather than masking the symptoms with medication more than twenty years after dr thomas armstrong s myth of the a d d child first published he presents much needed updates and insights in this substantially revised edition when the myth of the a d d child was first published in 1995 dr thomas armstrong made the controversial argument that many behaviors labeled as add or adhd are simply a child s active response to complex social emotional and educational influences in this fully revised and updated edition dr armstrong shows readers how to address the underlying causes of a child s attention and behavior problems in order to help their children implement positive changes in their lives the rate of adhd diagnosis has increased sharply along with the prescription of medications to treat it now needed more than ever this book includes fifty one new non drug strategies to help children overcome attention and behavior problems as well as updates to the original fifty proven strategies international education inquiries is a book series dedicated to realizing the global vision of education 2030 this vision involves ensuring inclusive and equitable quality education and promoting lifelong learning opportunities for all the founding editors seek to provide a forum for the diverse voices of scholars and practitioners from across the globe asking questions about transforming the vision of education 2030 into a reality published chapters will reflect a variety of formats free of methodological restrictions involving disciplinary as well as interdisciplinary inquiries we expect the series will be a leading forum for pioneers redefining the global discussion about the people places and perspectives shaping education 2030 outcomes education 2030 topics of interest include but are not limited to improving access to quality early childhood development care and pre primary education ensuring equal access for all women and men to affordable and quality education increasing the number of youth and adults who have skills relevant for sustainable living and livelihoods ensuring equal access for the vulnerable including persons with disabilities indigenous peoples and children in vulnerable situations achieving levels of literacy and numeracy required to engage in communities and employment acquiring the knowledge and skills needed to promote sustainable development including human right gender equality promotion of a culture of peace and non violence global citizenship education the appreciation of cultural diversity and of culture s contributions to sustainable development providing safe non violent inclusive and effective learning environments for all recruiting preparing supporting and retaining quality teachers

Breathing Aesthetics

in breathing aesthetics jean thomas tremblay argues that difficult breathing indexes the uneven distribution of risk in a contemporary era marked by the increasing contamination weaponization and monetization of air tremblay shows how biopolitical and necropolitical forces tied to the continuation of extractive capitalism imperialism and structural racism are embodied and experienced through respiration they identify responses to the crisis in breathing in aesthetic practices ranging from the film work of cuban american artist ana mendietta to the disability diaries of bob flanagan to the black queer speculative fiction of renee gladman in readings of these and other minoritarian works of experimental film endurance performance eco poetics and cinema vérité tremblay contends that articulations of survival now depend on the management and dispersal of respiratory hazards in so doing they reveal how an aesthetic attention to breathing generates historically culturally and environmentally situated tactics and strategies for living under precarity

The Return of Totalitarianism

this book enters into a detailed discussion with many theorists of totalitarianism and demands a re evaluation of approaches that speak of mass manipulation of people and ideological control mechanisms Žarko pać shows that totalitarianism cannot be only a political ideological problem but rather a problem of the relationship between the technosphere political power and the narcissistic culture of the spectacle which offers postmodern revisionism and forgetfulness of history as opposed to brave civic participation in the public sphere of acting together he investigates the transformations the political and cultural processes linked to the notion of totalitarianism undergo in the contemporary world and the transformations and differences that this notion expresses today in comparison to what was realized by fascism nazism and stalinism in the 20th century
