The Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) is an independent nonpartisan membership organization, think tank, and publisher. Foreign Affairs is the leading magazine for in-depth analysis and debate of foreign policy, geopolitics, and international affairs.

CFR has over 10,000 members and 19,000 subscribers. Only members and subscribers can access the full content of the website.

CFR's research and publications focus on a wide range of international issues, including:

- disarmament and non-proliferation
- peaceful uses of nuclear technology
- human rights
- humanitarian assistance
- refugees
- international law and treaties
- Japan and the United Nations
- Japan's security policy
- maritime affairs
- women's empowerment and gender equality

CFR also covers topics such as defense and security, diplomacy, and international institutions, economics, energy, and the environment.

CFR was founded in 1921 and has since become a leading voice in international relations. It is dedicated to being a resource for its members, government officials, and the public.
