this book showcases cutting edge research papers from the 9th international conference on research into design icord 2023 the largest in india in this area written by eminent researchers from across the world on design processes technologies methods and tools and their impact on innovation for supporting design for a connected world the theme of icord 23 has been design in the era of industry 4 0 industry 4 0 signifies the fourth industrial revolution the first industrial revolution was driven by the introduction of mechanical power such as steam and water engines to replace human and animal labour the second industrial revolution involved introduction of electrical power and organised labour the third industrial revolution was powered by introduction of industrial automation the fourth industrial revolution involves introduction of a combination of technologies to enable connected intelligence and industrial autonomy the introduction of industry 4 0 dramatically changes the landscape of innovation and the way design the engine of innovation is carried out the theme of icord 23 design in the era of industry 4 0 explores how industry 4 0 concepts and technologies influence the way design is conducted and how methods tools and approaches for supporting design can take advantage of this transformational change that is sweeping across the world the book is of interest to researchers professionals and entrepreneurs working in the areas on industrial design manufacturing consumer goods and industrial management who are interested in the new and emerging methods and tools for design of new products systems and services

The Army's Professional Military Ethic in an Era of Persistent Conflict 2009

this essay offers a proposal for the missing constructs and language with which we can more precisely think about and examine the army s professional military ethic starting with its macro context which is the profession s culture we examine three major long term influences on that culture and its core ethos thus describing how they evolve over time we contend that in the present era of persistent conflict we are witnessing dynamic changes within these three influences in order to analyze these changes we introduce a more detailed framework which divides the ethic into its legal and moral components then divide each of these into their institutional and individual manifestations turning from description to analysis we also examine to what extent if any recent doctrinal adaptations by the army fm 3 0 3 24 and 6 22 etc indicate true evolution in the essential nature of the profession s ethic then we present what we believe to be the most significant ethical challenge facing the army profession the moral development of army leaders moving them from values to virtues in order that they as army professionals can consistently achieve the high quality of moral character necessary to apply effectively and in a trustworthy manner their renowned military technical competencies

Deep Equality in an Era of Religious Diversity 2017 while religious conflict receives plenty of attention the everyday negotiation of religious diversity does not questions of how to accommodate religious minorities and of the limits of tolerance resonate in a variety of contexts and have become central preoccupations for many western democracies what might we see if we turned our attention to the positive narratives and success stories of the everyday working out of religious difference rather than tolerance and accommodation and through the stories of ordinary people this book traces deep equality which is found in the respect humor and friendship of seemingly mundane interactions deep equality in an era of religious diversity shows that the telling of such stories can create an alternative narrative to that of diversity as a problem to be solved it explores the non event or micro processes of interaction that constitute the foundation for deep equality and the conditions under which deep equality emerges exists and sometimes flourishes through a systematic search for and examination of such narratives lori g beaman demonstrates the possibility of uncovering revealing and recovering deep equality a recovery that is vital to living in an increasingly diverse society in achieving deep equality identities are fluid shifting in importance and structure as social interaction unfolds rigid identity imaginings especially religious identities block our vision to the complexities of social life and press us into corners that trap us in identities that we often ourselves do not recognize want or know how to escape although the focus of this study is deep equality and its existence and persistence in relation to religious difference deep equality is located beyond the realm of religion beaman draws from the work of those whose primary focus is not in fact religion and who are doing their own deep equality work in other domains illustrating especially why equality matters by retelling and exploring stories of negotiation it is possible to reshape our social imaginary to better facilitate what works which varies from place to place and time to time

The Era of Choice 2006-09-22

how today s cornucopia of choices has transformed our lives and our culture from the foundations of scientific theory to the anxiety of everyday decisions today most of us are awash with choices the cornucopia of material goods available to those of us in the developed world can turn each of us into a kid in a candy store but our delight at picking the prize is undercut by our regret at lost opportunities and what s the criterion for choosing anything material spiritual the path taken or not taken when we have lost our faith in everything in the era of choice edward rosenthal argues that choice and having to make choices has become the most important influence in both our personal lives and our cultural expression choice he claims has transformed how we live how we think and who we are this transformation began in the nineteenth century catalyzed by the growing prosperity of the industrial age and a diminishing faith in moral and scientific absolutes the multiplicity of choices forces us to form oppositions this says rosenthal has spawned a keen interest in dualism dilemmas contradictions and paradoxes in response we have developed mechanisms to hedge compromise and to synthesize rosenthal looks at the scientific and philosophical theories and cultural movements that choice has influenced from physics for example niels bohr s theory that light is both particle and wave to postmodernism from disney trailers to multiculturalism he also reveals the effect of choice on the personal level where we grapple with decisions that range from which wine to have with dinner to whether to marry or divorce as we hurtle through lives of instant gratification accelerated consumption trend change and speed but we have discovered writes rosenthal that sometimes we can have our cake and eat it too
