about the publication honoured to present to you the reader the 2020 edition of the pretoria student law review pslr an annual publication which is the pride of the best law faculty in africa according to the times higher education world university rankings the university of pretoria s law faculty ranks in the top 100 law faculties in the world a feat unequalled in africa the pslr is a student driven law review that creates an interactive forum for students academics and legal professionals to discuss topical legal matters that challenge the status quo at the beginning of this year lay the fantasy of newness presenting an opportunity to do great things but as i reflect on the journey leading to this publication i understand that the 2020 edition of the pslr had an engine that ran on hope faith dedication perseverance commitment and hard work our predecessors had a vision to create a boldly outlined legacy for the pslr they spearheaded the setting up of a system that would last the lifespan of the pslr today some 13 years after the first edition of the pslr south africa the continent and the world at large are on the cusp of a new era socially economically and politically when my journey as editor in chief commenced i imagined the pslr as a ship whose captain was myself customarily it is easy to be a captain of a ship in calm seas but unlike most of my predecessors i have had to be the captain of a ship through the heftiest of storms the world was not truly prepared to face challenges presented by the covid 19 let alone the pslr in the wake of the 4ir and this new age of technology sailing this ship to success was still a heavy task to complete it is therefore with great honour to have been able to successfully complete the task for which we the 14th cohort of the editorial board were called for we have upheld the esteemed reputations that have been left by our predecessors fittingly i wish to applaud my team for their inspiring commitment outstanding contribution and service in maintaining the elevated standard of the pslr for indeed it is a publication par excellence amidst the storms we have spearheaded the establishment of a free floating pslr collection in the or tambo law library this collection is dedicated to house all published pslr editions dating since the inception of the pslr in 2007 we have established and strengthened relations with other law faculties in the country and even beyond we published the very first special edition of the pslr a focused edition that covers a critical issue brought before the south african law deans association the decolonisation of legal education we have established a system by which all authors who publish with us ought to have an orcid id we have adopted internal regulations that outline the principles that govern the editorial board we have spearheaded the adoption and implementation of a policy that forces us to comply with dhnet standards in order to be a dhnet accredited journal so as to encourage and foster a student culture of critical research writing in legal academia i am truly proud of the work that the authors have put into their articles and i would like to thank them for their submissions and tireless efforts to produce quality articles more so i am proud of the editorial board for being able to work under immense pressure this edition would have not been possible without the dedication and hard work of this dream team i remain indebted to you all adelaide chagopa kayla thomas marcia van der merwe nicholas herd and phenyo sekati it has been a great pleasure and a privilege to have worked with you on this annual edition a note of thanks to dr gustav muller in his capacity as the guardian of the pslr to the reviewers your adjudication lays the foundation for each edition year in yearout your support and contribution to the pslr remains invaluable to lizette hermann elzet hurter and mornay hassan thank you for your continued and immeasurable support throughout this journey to primrose e r kurasha thank you for believing in me and for guiding me i am forever indebted to you my friend to my family elizabeth mtshweni jostina mtshweni clayton mtshweni lucas berto mateus stephine mashilo and lerato mashilo words cannot begin to express my gratitude for all the support you have given me throughout this journey thank you for keeping me sane through one of the toughest times of my publishing career thank you for the endless amount of support and the unconditional love you give me always you are the power oil that kept this engine running all by the sufficient grace of god i hereby pass the baton and entrust the next editor in chief with the difficult task of running faster and running a better marathon than myself and my predecessors to you future author i implore you to start writing for the water does not flow until the faucet is turned on to you the reader jurgen zwecker was right enjoy the read without fear to question what is in front of you for that is the only way we as scholars grow simon motshweni editor in chief 2020 table of contents editors note by simon motshweni statutory most scholars believe that the numerous similarities between the covenant code exodus 20 23 23 19 and mesopotamian law collections especially the laws of hammurabi which date to around 1750 bce are due to oral tradition that extended from the second to the first millennium this book offers a fundamentally new understanding of the covenant code arguing that it depends directly and primarily upon the laws of hammurabi and that the use of this source text occurred during the neo assyrian period sometime between 740 640 bce when mesopotamia exerted strong and continuous political and cultural influence over the kingdoms of israel and judah and a time when the laws of hammurabi were actively copied in mesopotamia as a literary canonical text the study offers significant new evidence demonstrating that a model of literary dependence is the only viable explanation for the work it further examines the compositional logic used in transforming the source text to produce the covenant code thus providing a commentary to the biblical composition from the new theoretical perspective this analysis shows that the covenant code is primarily a creative academic work rather than a repository of laws practiced by israelites or judeans over the course of their history the covenant code too is an ideological work which transformed a paradigmatic and prestigious legal text of israel s and judah s imperial overlords into a statement symbolically countering foreign hegemony the study goes further to study the relationship of the covenant code to the narrative of the book of exodus and explores how this may relate to the development of the pentateuch as a whole
