write for themselves the book they needed but couldn't find 21 prayers, blessings, and other devotional pieces that deal with global and individual concerns in the twenty-first century such as sickness, death, climate change, technology, community, self-worth, and mindfulness, using the techniques of poetry and rhetoric and drawing from a wide religious heritage and tradition. Lucia and Gwyneth write with simplicity, sincerity, and a light touch of humour. Neopagan in origin and suitable for all modern-day pagans including druids, pantheists, polytheists, wiccans, and devotees of the goddess, many of the pieces will also sit comfortably in interfaith services. The collection encompasses different perspectives and styles and uses a variety of voices to address three divinities: Our Lady of Corona, the Weaver of Worlds, aspects of the goddess, and the Horned God, and reflect on issues that might fall within the authority of each. The result is a compilation of themed pieces that can equally be used in personal devotions or group rituals. The section dedicated to Our Lady of Corona offers an insight into our relationship with sickness and death, while that of the Weaver of Worlds prompts us to consider and question our attitude to others and to some of the amenities and conveniences of the modern world that we often take for granted. Finally, turning to the Horned God's domain, we take a step back to see the bigger picture of the planet and the environment and reflect on our relationship with it and with the others who live here. The repetition, rhythm, and poetical structure of the pieces will encourage and facilitate participation in group rituals and also inspire other forms of worship, including drumming, music, song, and dance. There is space at the end of the book to write your own notes or personal prayers and devotions with its overriding mood of optimism and gratitude. The book offers consolation, comfort, and occasional challenge for all who face the ills of the modern world, whatever your spiritual tribe, and no matter what prayer means to you: communion with the divine, a meditative practice, or ritual devotion. In this book, you will find memorable, beautiful pieces to use in your personal practice or with your community. Discover more at modernpaganprayers.com. A book of pagan chants, prayers, mantras, litanies, and other words of praise and celebration. Do you feel the need to pray but lack the words? Sometimes words fail us when we need them most. Established prayers can feel out of date, irrelevant, or foreign to our spiritual beliefs. From the authors of A Wound in Time, this new volume of modern pagan prayers turns attention to the planet, to the five elements: earth, air, fire, water, spirit, and to the elementals: the gnomes, sylphs, salamanders, and undines. In a collection of 27 prayers, blessings, and invocations to use in your personal practice or with your community, giving the elements a voice and an opportunity to speak for the planet, the pieces tackle global and individual issues. Their mindful approach fosters a deeper appreciation of the natural world and of our role in its welfare, using the techniques of poetry and rhetoric and drawing from a wide religious heritage and tradition. The authors write with simplicity, sincerity, and a light touch of humour. Neopagan in origin and suitable for all modern-day pagans including druids, pantheists, polytheists, wiccans, and devotees of the goddess, many of the pieces in Elemental Voices will appeal to environmentalists, ecopoets, and mindfulness practitioners. Working with the pieces included here allows for a deeper relationship with the elements and the elementals to further your path. The collection challenges you to a greater recognition of the presence of the elements and inspires gratitude and celebration of the role they play in your life and in the wider world around you. The repetition, rhythm, and poetical structure of the pieces will encourage and facilitate participation in group rituals and also inspire other forms of worship, including drumming, music, song, and dance. There is space at the end of the book to write your own notes or personal prayers and devotions with its overriding mood of mindful optimism and gratitude. The book offers consolation, comfort, and occasional challenge for all who recognise the pains of the modern planet and the healing power of nature, whatever your spiritual tribe, and no matter what prayer means to you: communion with the divine, a meditative practice, or ritual devotion. In this book, you will find memorable, beautiful pieces to use in your personal practice or with your community.
