a few hours from a starting point of zero experience with access the paint by numbers approach is exactly what is needed as it quickly gets results probably feeds the instant gratification that most of our students are supposed to demand i don't care as a teacher it has certainly made my life a great deal less painful and i can recommend this text to anyone taking or teaching the aqa ict or computing course it's not even hard life saver i wouldn't have been able to do the project without it 4th november 2001 reviewer a student from high wycombe england this book pretty much lays out what is needed in the project in simple terms so that it can be adapted to your own project not only does it give the it side but also the written work which is in part more important than the actual system i wouldn't have been able to do the project without it excellent book as an introduction to access it is by far and away the most practical publication i have read on the subject 1st october 2001 reviewer sean scaife from dublin ireland as a newcomer to access although over 20 years in the it industry in various capacities i found this work to be invaluable in being able to grasp the fundamentals of access development it is by far and away the most practical publication i have read on the subject in fact i would go so far as to say that it is an object lesson to most authors of introductory works in so far that is practical in real world sense i have already passed on my original copy to a former colleague and have this morning recommended it to another colleague who will be purchasing it i have no problem spending on other manuals but this work has helped me to produce working solutions in a very short time congratulations a fan excellent 17th january 2001 reviewer a mark twain the genial humorist of the earlier day is now a reformer of the vigorous kind a sort of knight errant who does not hesitate to break a lance with either church or state if he thinks them interposing on that broad highway over which he believes not a part but the whole of mankind has the privilege of passing in the onward march of the ages mark twain had begun breaking the lance very soon after his return from europe he did not believe that he could reform the world but at least he need not withhold his protest against those things which stirred his wrath he began by causing the arrest of a cabman who had not only overcharged but insulted him he continued by writing openly against the american policy in the philippines the missionary propaganda which had resulted in the chinese uprising and massacre and against tammany politics not all of his efforts were in the line of reform he had become a sort of general spokesman which the public flocked to hear whatever the subject on the occasion of a lincoln birthday service at carnegie hall he was chosen to preside and he was obliged to attend more dinners than were good for his health his letters of this period were
