Fifth Business 1977 the story of five Canadians whose lives are joined together because of one badly aimed snowball

Fifth Business 1977 themes covered are identity guilt spirituality magic small town life

Fifth Business by Robertson Davies 2000 Ramsay is a man twice born a man who has returned from the hell of the battle grave at Passchendaele in World War I decorated with the Victoria Cross and destined to be caught in a no man's land where memory history and myth collide as Ramsay tells his story it begins to seem that from boyhood he has exerted a perhaps mystical perhaps pernicious influence on those around him his apparently innocent involvement in such innocuous events as the throwing of a snowball or the teaching of card tricks to a small boy in the end prove neither innocent nor innocuous fifth business stands alone as a remarkable story told by a rational man who discovers that the marvelous is only another aspect of the real

Fifth Business 2002-05-30 fifth business which one critic said was as masterfully executed as anything in the history of the novel might be described simply as the life of a schoolteacher named Dunstan Ramsay but such description would not even suggest the dark currents of love ambition vengeance and death that flow through this powerful work cast in the form of Ramsay's memoirs fifth business is the first novel in the celebrated Deptford Trilogy which also includes The Manticore and World of Wonders it also stands alone as the story of a rational man who discovers that the marvelous is only another aspect of the real

Companions to Literature : a Teacher's Guide for Fifth Business, Robertson Davies 1991 a collection of essays about contemporary Canadian novels by Margaret Atwood Robertson Davies Margaret Laurence Alice Munro Mordecai Richler Rudy Wiebe as edited by Professor of English at the University of Ottawa John Moss

Mud and Magic Shows 1992 the complete volume of Robertson Davies's acclaimed trilogy featuring fifth business the manticore and world of wonders with a new foreword by Kelly Link fifth business Ramsay is a man twice born a man who has returned from the hell of the battle grave at Passchendaele in World War I decorated with the Victoria Cross and destined to be caught in a no man's land where memory history and myth collide as Ramsay tells his story it begins to seem that from boyhood he has exerted a perhaps mystical perhaps pernicious influence on those around him his apparently innocent involvement in such innocuous events as the throwing of a snowball or the teaching of card tricks to a small boy in the end prove neither innocent nor innocuous fifth business stands alone as a remarkable story told by a rational man who discovers that the marvelous is only another aspect of the real the manticore around a mysterious death is woven a glittering fantastical cunningly contrived trilogy of novels luring the reader down labyrinthine tunnels of myth history and magic the Deptford Trilogy provides an exhilarating antidote to a world from where the fear and dread and splendour of wonder have been banished world of wonders this is the third novel in Davies's major work the Deptford Trilogy this novel tells the life story of the unfortunate boy introduced in the fifth business who was spirited away from his Canadian home by one of the members of a traveling side show the wanless world of wonders

Fifth Business [a Novel] 1971 this collection of essays on the writing of Robertson Davies addresses the basic problems in reading his work by looking at the topics of doubling disguise irony paradox and dwelling in gaps or spaces in between the essays present new insights on a broad range of topics in Davies's oeuvre and represent one of the first major discussions devoted to Davies's work since his death in 1995 published in English

The Canadian Novel 1983-02 born in Thamesville Ontario a student at Queen's University in Kingston in the 1930s and editor and later publisher of the Peterborough Examiner from the 1940s to the mid 1960s playwright essayist critic professor and novelist Robertson Davies 1913-1995 was one of Canada's pre-eminent literary voices for more than a half century Davies with his generous beard and donnish manner was the very epitome of the man of letters a term he abhorred best known for his Deptford Trilogy of novels fifth business the manticore world of wonders he also wrote two other trilogies Salterton and Cornish and was at work on the third volume of another trilogy Toronto when he died with a life as rich in character and colour as that found in his fiction and essays Davies had a great fondness for magic and myth both of which are found in abundance in his work along with a prodigious streak of wry humour

The Deptford Trilogy 1990-10-01 Conversations with Robertson Davies is a long overdue anthology of interviews with Canada's most respected literary figure journalist essayist reviewer playwright and novelist Robertson Davies has not only been a leading figure in Canadian literature since World War II but since the publication of fifth business in 1970 he has become known throughout the world Conversations with Robertson Davies will be of interest both to the student of Canadian literature and culture and to the scholar examining Davies's plays and novels as well as to the general reader who would like to know more about the awesome man behind the salterton and deptford trilogies what's bred in the bone and the lyre of orpheus a majority of this anthology of twenty eight interviews has never before appeared in print along with these previously unpublished interviews the reader finds a selection of the best print interviews tom harpur of the toronto star proves davies's spiritual beliefs ann saddlemyer looks into his dreams and author terence m green questions davies on the supernatural

Robertson Davies 2001 versatile and prolific robertson davies was an actor journalist and newspaper publisher playwright essayist founding master of massey college at the university of toronto and one of canada's greatest novelists he was also an obsessive complex and self revealing diarist his diaries which he began as a teenager grew to over 3 million words and are an astonishing literary legacy this first published selection of his diaries spans 1959 to 1963 years in which davies in mid life experienced both daunting failure and unexpected success born in thamesville ontario in 1913 he was educated at local schools then upper canada college queen's university and oxford university he worked in england at the famous old vic theatre as an actor and literary advisor before returning to canada where he became the editor and publisher of the peterborough examiner established himself as a prominent canadian playwright and published his first three novels now known as the salterton trilogy by 1959 at the age of forty five robertson davies was already one of canada's leading literary figures even so the diaries show that he was frustrated by the limitations of his literary success often exasperated with the distractions of his daily life and buffeted by his mental and emotional state they also show that he enjoyed life was deeply interested in the society he lived in and in the people he encountered more often than not he found comedy in the world around him and delighted in recording it he kept not only a daily journal but also more focused diaries such as his accounts of the toronto and new york production of his play love and libel when he worked closely with the great british director tyrone guthrie and of the founding of massey college the brainchild of vincent massey the descriptions of backstage and academic politics are invariably entertaining but in his diaries davies also reveals himself as intensely self critical frequently insecure and with a highly changeable nature that he described as his celtic temperament we also see him as a partner in an intensely happy and creative marriage and as a man with an astonishing capacity for hard work by the end of 1963 his life had taken a new direction as master of massey college he finds himself a public figure but he is increasingly preoccupied with a new novel he wants to write which he is calling fifth business the publication of a celtic temperament establishes robertson davies as one of the great diarists in their range variety intimacy and honesty his diaries present an extraordinarily rich portrait of the man and his times

Robertson Davies 2009-03-23 a splendid gallimaufry of the eminent canadian's talks and essays mostly about literature and the creative life a thought filled and amusing book the washington post for devotees of davies and all lovers of literature and language here is the urbanity wit and high seriousness mixed by a master chef vintage delights from an exquisite literary menu cleveland plain dealer robertson davies's rich and varied collection of writings on the world of books and the miracle of language captures his inimitable voice and sustains his presence among us coming almost entirely from davies's own files of unpublished material these twenty four essays and lectures range over themes from the novelist and magic to literature and technology from painting fiction and faking to can a doctor be a humanist and creativity in old age davies himself says merely lucky writers like wine die rich in fruitiness and delicious aftertaste so that their works survive them splendid wise witty wide ranging the new york times book review some of davies's ideas are iconoclastic and will delight those who share them while stimulating those who do not all his judgments are interesting steeped in humanism and most elegantly put the atlantic monthly the inimitable novelist gives an exuberant posthumous performance in this eclectic collection of mostly previously unpublished addresses talks and incidental pieces davies diffuses his opinions entertainingly if occasionally superficially but never loses his audience kirkus reviews

Fifth Business 1996 completing the survey begun in lams cornish trilogy volume aspects of robertson davies novels discusses the salterton and deptford trilogies along with davies last two novels murder walking spirits and the cunning man the apprentice effort tempest tost and the journeyman's success leaven of malice were followed by davies first genuinely fine novel a mixture of frailties the story of a talented salterton girl who becomes a world famous soprano the deptford trilogy is discussed in terms of northrop frye's confession form as it appears in fifth business and in variations of that form in the manticore and world of wonders although davies jungian enthusiasms produced certain flaws to which readers have objected murder walking spirits is by no means a failure it is best understood as an implicit spiritual history of canada which is adumbrated in the generational experience of a single canadian family the cunning man concludes davies career with a narrative as rewardingly complex as any of the cornish trilogy novels

Fifth Business 1986 a collection of speeches on literature academia and more by the extremely entertaining novelist and public speaker the washington post these public addresses by the acclaimed canadian man of letters and new york times bestselling author robertson davies provides portraits of literary personalities advice on writers and writing and comments on academia and the modern world whether giving advice to schoolgirls discussing the age of aquarius as seen by alchemists exploring

jungian psychology in the theater and insanity in literature or telling us how to design a haunted house davies brings to all his subjects the same intensity and marvelous craftsmanship that are the hallmarks of his fictional creations
