the most exciting novel i ve read in ages i gulped it down so readable so excellent about people read it marian keyes this novel is perfection glamour a coolly ironic look at modern womanhood this is an excellent novel the times you know how we say we devoured a story and also that we were consumed by it eating and being eaten it was like that with claire for me from humble beginnings therese has let herself grow used to a life of luxury after marrying into an empire building family but when rumours of corruption gather around her husband's latest development the social opprobrium is shocking the fallout swift and there she begins to look at her privileged and insular world with new eyes in the flat below there something else is brewing her neighbour Claire believes she's discovered the secret to living with freedom and authenticity freeing herself from the mundanity of domesticity there she finds herself enchanted by the lure of the permissive zone Claire creates in her apartment a place of ecstatic release all too quickly there she is forced to confront herself and her choices just how did she become this person and what exactly should she do about it a thoughtful intelligent novel about one woman's search for more meaning good housekeeping
