from the author of the bbc 2 between the covers hit the fine art of invisible detection the world s greatest storyteller the guardian one of the finest crime writers of any generation daily mail on a stifling afternoon at police hq in algiers superintendent taleb coasting towards retirement with not even an air conditioned office to show for his long years of service is handed a ticking time bomb of a case which will take him deep into algeria s troubled past and its fraught relationship with france to his dismay he is assigned to work with agent hidouchi an intimidating representative of the country s feared secret service who makes it clear she intends to call the shots they are instructed to pursue a former agent now on the run after twenty years in prison for his part in a high level corruption scandal but their search will lead them inexorably towards a greater mystery surrounding a murder that took place in paris more than fifty years ago uncovering the truth may be his responsibility but taleb is well aware that no one in algeria wants to be reminded of the dark deeds carried out in the struggle for independence or in the violence that has racked the nation since before long he will face a choice he has long sought to avoid between self preservation and doing the right thing and ultimately the choice may not even be his to make
