fyodor dostoyevsky was born on 11th november 1821 he was introduced to literature very early at age three it was heroic sagas fairy tales and legends at four his mother used the bible to teach him to read and write his immersion in literature was wide and varied his imagination he later recalled was brought to life by his parents nightly readings on 27th september 1837 tragedy struck dostoyevsky s mother died of tuberculosis dostoyevsky and his brother were now enrolled at the nikolayev military engineering institute their academic studies abandoned for military careers dostoyevsky disliked the academy his interests were drawing and architecture his father died on 16th june 1839 and perhaps triggered dostoyevsky s epilepsy however he continued his studies passed his exams and obtained the rank of engineer cadet dostoyevsky s first completed work was a translation of honoré de balzac s novel eugénie grandet published in 1843 it was not successful he believed his financial difficulties could be overcome by writing his own novel the result was poor folk published in 1846 and a commercial success his next novel the double appeared in January 1846 Dostoyevsky now became immersed in socialism however the double received bad reviews and he now had more frequent seizures with debts mounting he joined the utopian socialist Betekov circle which helped him to survive when that dissolved he joined the Petrashevsky circle which proposed social reforms the Petrashevsky circle was then denounced and Dostoyevsky accused of reading and distributing banned works arrests took place in late April 1849 and its members sentenced to death by firing squad the tsar commuted the sentence to four years of exile with hard labour in Siberia his writings on these prison experiences the House of the Dead were published in 1861 in Saint Petersburg that September he promised his editor he would deliver the Gambler a novella on gambling addiction by November although work had yet to begin it was completed in a mere 26 days other works followed but a different approach helped immensely in 1873 Demons was published by the Dostoyevsky Publishing Company only payment in cash was accepted and the bookshop was the family apartment it sold around 3 000 copies however Dostoyevsky's health continued to decline and in March 1877 he had four epileptic seizures in August 1879 he was diagnosed with early stage pulmonary emphysema he was told it could be managed but not cured on 26th January 1881 Dostoyevsky suffered a pulmonary haemorrhage after the second the doctors gave a poor prognosis a third haemorrhage followed shortly afterwards Fyodor Dostoyevsky died on 9th February 1881
