edited with a new introduction by aimee mclaughlin the yellow wallpaper by american writer charlotte perkins gilman first published in january 1892 is regarded as an important early work of american feminist literature for its illustration of the attitudes towards mental and physical health of women in the 19th century what happens when a woman is pushed too far is she able to express her thoughts and feelings or is she forced towards the expectation of behaving normally again soon a woman travels with her husband to an old colonial mansion after a nervous breakdown triggered by the birth of their child confined to the nursery and allowed only to breathe fresh air eat well and rest in line with a regimented cure she slowly begins to unravel at the seams her only distraction is writing in secret that and the woman she begins to see trapped inside the yellow wallpaper of the room itself isolated and breaking apart she sets herself a task to free the woman and to become one with her temporary confinement charlotte perkins gilman s the yellow wallpaper presents a harrowing disturbing account of mental stress confinement and female turmoil within which the only available solace can be found inside four peeling sickly yellow walls our new edition also features the sequence of poems woman by charlotte perkins gilman the gothic genre offers gilman an effective mode of diagnosing contemporary culture whilst in tandem expressing her ensuing fears and anxieties gilman within this novella gothicises the domestic setting inverting the pillars of domesticity family security and understanding in turn unveiling the dangers lurking behind the familiarity of gender roles within marital relations the intimate first person narration of the narrative serves to enhance Gilman's exposure of the oppressive forces of a male dominated society as she deplores her protagonist's inferior position in her domestic arrangement the female narrator is encumbered by masculine superiority undoubtedly dwelling in the middle of patriarchy embedded within her characterisation is the subjugated role bestowed upon Victorian women Gilman projects derangement onto a familiar literary figure the middle class wife and mother placing the source of this madness in the inviolate sphere for dutiful women the home from the new introduction to the yellow wallpaper by Aimee McLaughlin

it is very seldom that mere ordinary people like john and myself secure ancestral halls for the summer a colonial mansion a hereditary estate i would say a haunted house and reach the height of romantic felicity but that would be asking too much of fate still i will proudly declare that there is something queer about it else why should it be let so cheaply and why have stood so long untenanted john laughs at me of course but one expects that in marriage john is practical in the extreme he has no patience with faith an intense horror of superstition and he scoffs openly at any talk of things not to be felt and seen and put down in figures john is a physician and perhaps i would not say it to a living soul of course but this is dead paper and a great relief to my mind perhaps that is one reason i do not get well faster you see he does not believe i am sick and what can one do
