placing the creation of westphalia within the context of the larger german story of the napoleonic wars this groundbreaking book offers the only complete history of napoleon s grand experiment to construct a model state in germany in 1807 in the wake of two years of victories over the austrians prussians and russians napoleon redrew the map of central europe by fashioning a new german state dubbing it the kingdom of westphalia he appointed his 23 year old brother jerome as its king sam a mustafa shows how westphalia became a proving ground for the allegedly liberating and modern concepts of the french revolution brought by foreign conquest and enforced by a powerful new centralized state over the next six years the inhabitants of this region experienced fundamental and often jarring changes in almost every aspect of their lives

they witnessed a profound clash of french and german culture as well as new ideas about law nationality and politics and yet for all of its promise on paper westphalia ended up despised by most of its people who cheered at its collapse and in many cases helped to bring it down what went wrong with this early example of what we would today call nation building and how did germans react to the changes napoleon s paper kingdom is the first book in the english language to provide a comprehensive investigation of this fascinating chapter of the napoleonic wars the paper conversion sectors are assuming increasingly important place in the life of every nation conversion technology is being evolved continuously for having better conversion handling transportation preservation and usage of materials paper and pulp industry plays a vital role towards conversion pulping is a process of delignification removing lignin from wood while leaving cellulose fibres intact pulp and paper can be produced from many resources like eta reed bamboo bagasse elephant grass etc growing population and increased demand of paper products has created raw material shortage all over the world especially in developing countries consequently agricultural residues and farm wastes are the only hope for further pulp papermaking in these countries however technology is evolving that holds promise for using waste or recycled paper and in some cases even plastics to make an array of high performance composite products that are in themselves potentially recyclable pulp and paper industry is one of the largest industries in india today which consumes huge quantity of water as the product does not contain any water most of the water used in the process reappears as waste therefore the waste water is used in crop irrigation which will solve both problems i e industrial waste solution and irrigation the indian paper industry has close linkages with economic growth as higher industrial output leads to increased demand for industrial paper for packaging increased marketing spend benefits the newsprint and value added segments and increased education and office activities increase demand for writing and printing paper it is estimated that there is an economic growth of 8.5 for india which will benefit the demand for paper the major contents of the book are dry process hard boards from recycled newsprint paper fibres abrasive kraft base paper from sun hemp crotolaria jauncia production of soda semi chemical pulp from sesbania sesban linn merr high yield pulps from eta reed the influence of clay addition on flotation deinking alternative uses for waste paper in wood based composite products deinking of flexo graphic newsprint use of ultra filtration to close the water loop etc this book also consists of alkaline pulping chemistry manufacturers suppliers of plant machinery and allied products manufacturers and suppliers of raw materials imported pulp manufacturers suppliers imported pulp indian agents for imported pulp etc in view of the close linkage between paper and conversion industry we have tried to come out with this unique book containing relevant and useful information in both these industries we have tried to make it most exhaustive first giving details then presenting and dividing in different chapter to understand better thus we have tried to fill the vacuum that existed fill now this book will be useful for paper chemists as well as conversion industries
