How to Write the Perfect Personal Statement 2012-04-23

the human presence that animates the personal essay is surely one of the most beguiling of literary phenomena for it comes across in so familiar a voice that it s easy to believe we are listening to the author rather than a textual stand in but the person in a personal essay is always a written construct a fabricated character its confessions and reminiscences as rehearsed as those of any novelist in this first book length study of the personal essay carl klaus unpacks this made up self and the manifold ways in which a wide range of essayists and essays have brought it to life by reconceiving the most fundamental aspect of the personal essay the i of the essayist klaus demonstrates that this seemingly uncontrived form of writing is inherently problematic not willfully devious but bordering upon the world of fiction he develops this key idea by explaining how structure style and voice determine the nature of a persona and our perception of it in the works of such essayists as michel de montaigne charles lamb e b white and virginia woolf realizing that this persona is shaped by the force of culture and the impress of personal experience he explores the effects of both upon the point of view content and voice of such essayists as george orwell nancy mairs richard rodriguez and alice walker throughout in full command of the history of the essay he calls up numerous passages in which essayists themselves acknowledge the element of impersonation in their work drawing upon the perspectives of joan didion edward hoagland joyce carol oates leslie marmon silko scott russell sanders annie dillard vivian gornick loren eiseley james baldwin and a host of other literary guides finally adding yet another layer to the made up self klaus succumbs to his addiction to the personal essay by placing some of the different selves that various essayists have called forth in him within the essays that he has crafted so carefully for this book making his way from one essay to the next with a persona variously learned whimsical and poignant he enacts the palimpsest of ways in which the made up self comes to life in the work of a single essayist thus over the course of this highly original beautifully structured study the personal essay is revealed to be more complex than many readers have supposed with its lively analyses and illuminating examples the made up self will speak to anyone who wishes to understand or to write personal essays

The Mind Field 1996

in her essay collection first second and other selves essays on friendship and personal identity well known scholar of ancient philosophy jennifer whiting gathers her previously published essays taking aristotle s theories on friendship as a springboard to engage with contemporary philosophical work on personal identity and moral psychology whiting examines three themes throughout the collection the first being psychic contingency or the belief that the psychological structures characteristic of human beings may in fact vary not just from one cultural or socio historical context to another but also from one individual to another the second theme is the belief that friendship informs an understanding of the nature of the self an idea that springs from whiting s uncommon reading of aristotle s writings on friendship specifically whiting explains a scenario in which a virtuous agent adopts a kind of impersonal attitude both towards herself and towards her character friends loving both because they are virtuous this scenario ties in with an examination of the aristotelian concept of the ideal friend as an other self or a friendship that evolves from character rather than ego as well as whiting s meditation on whether or not a virtuous individual should have a special sort of concern for her own future self distinct in kind from the concern that she has for others the third theme is that of rational egoism a concept that whiting critiques especially in the context of aristotle s eudaimonism the central tenet of the collection is the message that taking ethocentric or character based attitudes both towards ourselves and towards our friends sheds light on the nature of personal identity and helps to combat ethnocentric and other objectionable forms of bias a message that is becoming increasingly urgent in light of the recent deaths of trayvon martin and michael brown
