1886 it seems to be certain says the abbé mcgeoghehan that ireland continued uninhabited from the creation to the deluge with this assurance to help us on our onward way i may venture to supplement it by saying that little is known about the first or even about the second third and fourth succession of settlers in ireland at what precise period what is known as the scoto celtic branch of the great aryan stock broke away from its parent tree by what route its migrants travelled in what degree of consanguinity it stood to the equally celtic race or races of britain what sort of people inhabited ireland previous to the first aryan invasion all this is in the last degree uncertain though that it was inhabited by some race or races outside the limits of that greatest of human groups seems from ethnological evidence to be perfectly clear when first it dawns upon us through that thick darkness which hangs about the birth of all countries whatever their destiny it was a densely wooded and scantily peopled island lying a loose as old campion the elizabethan historian tells us upon the west ocean though his further assertion that in

2019-03-07 calum carmichael asserts that biblical texts both in the old and new testaments which have been the subject of interpretation for centuries are themselves often the products of the ancient authors interpretation of still other literary compositions claiming that parts of the bible constitute major and very early examples of exegesis carmichael demonstrates that the author of the story of creation in genesis 1 produced his work in reaction to troubling issues that arose in the story of the exodus the author of john s gospel in turn recounted the life of jesus in light of the story of creation pointing out that much of modern literary criticism has roots in biblical hermeneutics carmichael turns his attention to the richness and complexity of the ancient world s own modes of interpretation by doing so he is able to uncover the heretofore unrecognized influence of the exodus story on the creation story and of the creation story on john s gospel carmichael first shows how the author of the seven day scheme of creation in genesis produced it in response to his reading of the exodus story which was centuries old in his time he then shows the extent to which the author of john s gospel was influenced by first century cosmological speculation philo s in particular in the first five chapters of his gospel the author elaborated the details of the creation story to present in allegorical fashion incidents from the life of jesus
