given a great commission which is to spread the gospel and make disciples the method by which we fulfill this commission is the greatest commandments to love god and love our neighbors as ourselves god created us to love but we have an enemy whose goal is to destroy everything that god created and his favorite method of destruction is perversion the distortion corruption or alteration of a thing from its original course or design so it makes sense that our enemy would seek to pervert the way we love ourselves and others in his attempt to stop the spread of the gospel so how does this perversion take place i believe the enemy attacks us through our primary love languages and uses our very own parents as unwitting and sometimes witting participants to carry out his plan since we all receive love differently the enemy will attack us in different ways but there are some common tactics he uses depending on our love language if we can learn to recognize the enemy's tactics for what they were are we can start the process of breaking the cycle of perversion in our lives and the generations to come in doing so we can learn to fully love god ourselves and others and we will fulfill the purpose for which we were designed first published in 2012 routledge is an imprint of taylor francis an informa company this book explores what we mean when we use the term perversion are we dealing with a sexological classification a mental disturbance an ethical deviation a hedonistic style or an historical cultural artifact the book retraces some of the fundamental stages in the field of psychoanalytic thought from freud to masud khan stoller and lacan and proposes an original approach that paraphilias today are taken as an ethical failure of the sexual relationship with the other the perversions signal a specific relationship with the other who is treated not simply as a sexual object but someone whose subjectivity is ably exploited precisely in order to therapeutic relationship needed for treatment case studies are used throughout to illustrate aspects of perversion and notable psychoanalytic theories are detailed for greater understanding of what perversion is and how it can be treated female perversion is explored in a separate chapter as the symptoms and underlying reasons are quite different from those in male perversion this is a helpful and succinct exploration of perversion in its numerous manifestations that provides a firm foundation in the subject in this book the author examines the terminology used in the analysis of sadomasochism and surveys in detail the theories of other psychoanalysts he explores the relationship between sadomasochism and other conditions such as depression psychosis and borderline states and discusses the nature of evil in the broadest way possible this is a researched foray into the minds of the perverse men and women governed by unconscious motives which distort their behaviour and give rise to shameful and forbidden desires psychotherapist dr kaplan dispels the myth that perversion is the province of men alone and reveals female perversions which parody feminine models of submission and purity just as male perversions caricature masculine ideals of virility and exhibitionism are male afflictions while kleptomania self injury and anorexia are female phenomena she argues that all perversions are the products of gender stereotyping and that all are instruments of deception using case studies and the illuminating story of flaubert s emma bovary she unfolds the elements of the perverse strategy and opens the reader s mind to the recent trend in the 20th century to contain and regulate the gender ambiguities in each of us she also identifies the commercialization of deviant sexuality which trivialises the meaning of erotic freedom this book deconstructs the pathologizing category of sadomasochism in order to account for the lived
