postgraduate level the book includes definitions of key terms within the discipline as well as outlines of the work of key thinkers in the field including eugene a nida gideon toury hans j vermeer and lawrence venuti the list of key readings is intended to direct students towards classic articles as well providing a springboard to further study accessibly written with complicated terms and concepts explained in an easy to understand way key terms in translation studies is an essential resource for students in translation and cross cultural communication studies in the asia pacific leong ko and ping chen provide a comprehensive and in depth account of various issues encountered in translation and interpreting activities and cross cultural communication in the asia pacific against world literature on the politics of untranslatability argues for a rethinking of comparative literature focusing on the problems that emerge when large scale paradigms of literary studies ignore the politics of the untranslatable the realm of those words that are continually retranslated mistranslated transferred from language to language or especially resistant to substitution in the place of world literature a dominant paradigm in the humanities one grounded in market driven notions of readability and universal appeal apter proposes a plurality of world literatures oriented around philosophical concepts and geopolitical pressure points the history and theory of the language that constructs world literature is critically examined with a special focus on weltliteratur literary world systems narrative ecosystems language borders and checkpoints theologies of translation and planetary devolution in a book set to revolutionize the discipline of comparative literature over the past half century translation studies has emerged decisively as an academic field around the world and in recent years the number of academic institutions offering instruction in translation has risen along with an increased demand for translators interpreters and translator trainers teaching translation is the most comprehensive and theoretically informed overview of current translation teaching contributions from leading figures in translation studies are preceded by a substantial introduction by lawrence venuti in which he presents a view of translation as the ultimate humanistic task an interpretive act that varies the form meaning and effect of the source text 26 incisive chapters are divided into four parts covering certificate and degree programs teaching translation practices studying translation theory history and practice surveys of translation pedagogies and key textbooks the chapters describe long standing programs and courses in the us canada the uk and spain and each one presents an exemplary model for teaching that can be replicated or adapted in other institutions each contributor responds to fundamental questions at the core of any translation course for example how is translation defined what qualifies students for admission to the course what impact does the institutional site have upon the course or pedagogy teaching translation will be relevant for all those working and teaching in the areas of translation and translation studies additional resources for translation and interpreting studies are available on the routledge translation studies portal this volume is made up of 17 chapters which have developed out of papers and workshop sessions presented at the event entitled corpora seminar and workshops held at the university of padua march 29 31 2007 it maintains the straightforward practical approach which characterized that event meant as an introduction to the use of corpora even for novices at the same time it goes into a wide range of different applications for corpora in language teaching and language research in higher education one of these involves the creation and use of learner corpora another application involves corpus assisted research into political discourse in the media language for special purposes is also focussed on as a research topic an academic discipline and language to be translated multimodal corpora are also considered proposals are made for corpus based research into the language of films and into translation and mediation universals a corpus based study of text complexity in reading tests is also presented large scale corpora commercially available are also discussed an online module for translator training is presented as is an internet accessible corpus of old english poetry a collection of research papers on multiplicities diversities and cosmos devoid of polarities compiled as a part of conference on trans ending polarities at vellalar college for women in collaboration with pachyderm tales this interdisciplinary study tackles the controversy of translating nephesh נֶפֶשׁ by using an intergenerational translation team to deepen our understanding of this term and providing a more valuable translation in chinese especially for use in specialist children s bibles traditionally nephesh is often translated in the bible as soul but despite the limitations of this popular rendering it has led christians in chinese contexts to falsely understand views regarding the nature of human beings as a trichotomy dr hui er yu s study offers different options for translating nephesh using the context of where the word appears in scripture as well as in reference to linguistic and cultural meanings in chinese contexts the findings in this book will help to remove anthropological misunderstandings among many chinese christians related to nephesh as a result of historic translation decisions dr yu takes a unique approach to translation by using an intergenerational bible translation team ranging from seven to fifty one years of age which not only demonstrates the importance of intergenerational ministry but also presents a way to fulfill the growing need for well translated children s bibles in china for thousands of young believers this book provides important lessons for the many translation projects working towards children s bibles but also for how translation of biblical terms can be better reached through this intergenerational process specialised translation has received very little attention from academic researchers but in fact accounts for the bulk of professional translation on a global scale and is taught in a growing number of university level translation programmes this book aims to provide three things firstly it offers a description of what makes the approach to specialised translation distinctive from wider ranging approaches to translation studies adopted by translation scholars and applied linguists secondly unlike the traditional approach to specialised translation this book explores a perspective on specialised translation that is much less focused on terminology and more on the function and reception of specialised translated texts finally the author outlines a professionally oriented hands on approach to the teaching of specialised translation resulting from many years of teaching it to ma students the book will be of interest to translation studies students and scholars as well as professional translators who are interested in the theory on which their activity is based the introduction of innovative light sources fibre laser sources and light emitting diodes is opening unexpected perspectives into optical techniques and is promising new exciting applications in the field of biomedicine lasers and current optical techniques in biology aims to provide an overview of light sources together with an extensive and authoritative description of the optical techniques in bio medicine this book is designed to give biomedical researchers a strong feel for the capability of physical approaches promote new interdisciplinary interests and persuade more practitioners to take advantage of optical techniques current developments in a variety of optical techniques including near infra red spectroscopy and traditional and advanced fluorescence techniques are covered ranging from those that are becoming common practice to those that need much more experimentation before they can be accepted as real breakthroughs further topics include optical coherence tomography and its variations polarised light imaging and principle laser and lamp sources a usually fragmentary topic often dispersed among specialist publications the wide range of topics covered make lasers and current optical techniques in biology of interest to a diverse range of scientific communities in the digital age numerous technological tools are available to enhance educational practices when used effectively student engagement and mobile learning are significantly increased social media in education breakthroughs in research and practice contains a compendium of the latest academic material on the usage strategies and applications of social media in education today including innovative studies on online networks social constructivism and collaborative learning this publication is an ideal source for educators professionals school administrators researchers and practitioners in the field of education modern technology has enhanced many aspects of life including classroom education by offering virtual learning experiences educational systems can become more efficient and effective at teaching the student population multilingual writing and pedagogical cooperation in virtual learning environments is a critical scholarly resource that examines experiences with virtual networks and their advantages for universities and students in the domains of writing translation and usability testing featuring coverage on a broad range of topics such as collaborative writing project based learning and writing and translation practices this book is geared towards administrators teachers professors academicians practitioners and researchers seeking current research on multilingual writing and pedagogical cooperation in virtual learning environments includes entries for maps and atlases this journal is devoted to the advancement of the science and technology of thermophysics and heat transfer through the dissemination of original research papers disclosing new technical knowledge and exploratory developments and applications based on new knowledge it publishes papers that deal with the properties and mechanisms involved in thermal energy transfer and storage in gases liquids and solids or combinations thereof these studies include conductive convective and radiative modes alone or in combination and the effects of the environment
