said my mother she does not deserve to have a son and mrs pendennis looked towards her own only darling whilst uttering this indignant exclamation as she looked i know what passed through her mind she nursed me she dressed me in little caps and long clothes she attired me in my first jacket and trousers she watched at my bedside through my infantile and juvenile ailments she tended me through all my life she held me to her heart with infinite prayers and blessings she is no longer with us to bless and pray but from heaven where she is i know her love pursues me and often and often i think she is here only invisible mrs firmin would be of no good growled dr goodenough she would have hysterics and the nurse would have two patients to look after about the publisher forgotten books publishes faun help change the whole world excerpt from the adventures of philip on his way through the world showing who robbed him who helped him and who passed him by to which is prefixed a shabby genteel story soon after the marriage the happy pair returned to eng land occupying the house in thames street city until the death of gann senior when his son becoming head of the firm of gann blubbery quitted the dismal precincts of billingsgate and colonized in the neighborhood of putney where a neat box a couple of spare bedrooms a good cellar and a smart gig to drive into and out from town made a real gentleman of him mrs gann treated him with much scorn to be sure called him a sot and abused hugely the male com panions that he brought down with him to putney honest james would listen meekly would yield and would bring down a brace more friends the next day with whom he would dis cuss his accustomed number of bottles of port about this period a daughter was born to him called caroline branden burg gann so named after a large mansion near hammersmith and an injured queen who lived there at the time of the little girl s birth and who was greatly compassioned and patronized by mrs james gann and other ladies of distinction mrs james was a lady in those days and gave evening parties of the very first order at this period of time mrs james gann sent the twins rosalind clancy and isabella finnigan wellesley macarty to a boarding school for young ladies and grumbled much at the amount of the half years bills which her husband was called upon to pay for them for though james discharged them with perfect good humor his lady began to entertain a mean opinion indeed of her pretty young children they could expect no fortune she said from mr gann and she wondered that he should think of bringing them up expensively when he had a darling child of his own for whom he was bound to save all the money that he could lay by about the publisher forgotten books publishes
